Dear Mrs. Daufeldt:

Your letters of July 25 and August 25 reached me in Paris at the same time yesterday. Your letter dated in June arrived about two weeks ago, and I hope you received my reply. But I write again to assure you that I have taken up your husband's case with the American authorities in Berlin, describing my conversations with him in 1940 and 1941 which should be helpful to him now.

My wife and I remember very well our pleasant evening with you in your home and she joins me in best wishes. I expect to visit Germany again in a few weeks, and hope to see you then. Meanwhile, I am

Sincerely yours,

Demaree Bess
